

Student Affairs | SU Cares

www.salisbury.edu/students

At Salisbury University, we care about our students. We believe that working collaboratively with faculty, our students and their families, and other university offices promotes academic, personal, and life-long success. Services and operational hours may vary during emergencies.

Select Resources	Examples of Student Services and Support	Contact Information
Student Affairs Case Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assistance with college adjustment Emergency absences and medical notifications Crisis support Liaison with faculty, academic advisors, and others 	410.677.0022 SUCares@salisbury.edu Guerrieri Student Union Suite 213
Center for Student Achievement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tutoring in select subjects (including Praxis), supplemental instruction for select classes, and workshops (e.g., goal setting, note-taking, exam preparation, study skills, time management, test anxiety, and reading strategies) Graduate School Test Prep Academic Recovery Program 	410.677.4865 Guerrieri Academic Commons Suite 270
Counseling Center (accredited)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mental health screening Crisis intervention Individual and Group Therapy Support Groups: Sister Circle (women of color), Brother's Keeper (men of color), Crossing Borders (international students), Tea Talk (open) 	410.543.6070 counseling@salisbury.edu Guerrieri Student Union Suite 263
Student Health Services (accredited)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Injuries and illnesses Annual Gyn/Pap test HPV vaccine Well physicals STD testing information and education 	410.543.6262 410.548.4101 fax studenthealth@salisbury.edu Holloway Hall Side Entrance, Suite 180
TRIO Student Support Services: Funded by U.S. Department of Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Application-based program with limited space Supports and advocates for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> First-generation and/or low-income students Students with disabilities Military students Academic coaching, mentoring, financial literacy, career readiness, civic engagement, cultural enrichment, and graduate school application assistance and preparation 	410.677.4737 trio@salisbury.edu Academic Commons Suite 270
Office of Access & Accommodations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supports and advocates for students with disabilities Registers students with disabilities Reviews requests for academic accommodations Disabilities include medical, psychiatric, learning, mobility, visual, and/or hearing impairments 	410.543.6087 TTY 410.548.6083 accommodations@salisbury.edu Guerrieri Student Union Suite 229
Career Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Career interest assessments Career exploration and preparation Career fairs Résumé writing and personal statements Graduate school selection Volunteer connections and resources 	410.543.6075 Guerrieri Student Union Suite 242

Rev September 2025

Additional services and resources provided by the Division of Student Affairs can be found here:

<https://www.salisbury.edu/administration/student-affairs/>