MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Salisbury University offers a major in interdisciplinary studies (IDIS) leading to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science. The major accommodates students who wish to develop programs of study in two or more disciplines or create a major in an area of study not offered by any traditional major at SU.

- Submit an IDIS Proposal Form to the interdisciplinary studies coordinator for approval in order to officially change to the interdisciplinary studies major.
- Program proposal must include a goal statement that shows a rationale for the cohesion of the areas of study and describe any potential career goals suitable for the program proposal.
- Program proposals should list any lower-division prerequisites to the courses chosen for the IDIS major and note the possible 300-/400-level courses being used to complete the IDIS major.
- Complete a minimum of 30 semester hours in 300-/400-level courses from 2 or 3 approved academic disciplines with grades of C or better, including IDIS 335 and IDIS 435, with a grade of C or better as part of their approved program.
- Completing all prerequisite courses required for the courses chosen for their IDIS major and list the course prerequisites on the program proposal.
- Upper-division courses (300/400 level) completed prior to receiving program approval may or may not be used for the IDIS major, and no more than 18 such credits may be credited toward the major.
- At least 15 credits must be taken in residence at SU.
- No more than 2 of the courses used to meet the IDIS major may be used to meet minor or other major requirements.
- For those seeking a B.A., demonstrate 102-level proficiency in a foreign language.
- Any deviation from an approved program must be approved in writing by the IDIS coordinator.
