HONOREE REFLECTIONS

All 30-40-year honorees were given the opportunity to respond to one or both of the following:

What do you value most about your career at SU?

Share a notable narrative about your career or service milestone.

30-YEAR HONOREE REFLECTIONS

Marie Bradford

"I have always valued the staff who work so tirelessly and earnestly for the betterment of the students, faculty and staff members at SU. Each and every position is important to making SU the best it can be."

Dr. Diane Davis

"Salisbury University is small enough that I've formed deep personal relationships with colleagues and students. There isn't a huge bureaucratic maze, and I often have the feeling of teamwork. I've been blessed to work with some very smart, very caring faculty, and they made me better. The Medical Laboratory Science Program has been well-supported. Our size and our success make the graduates stay connected and donate equipment and supplies regularly, and we have been at the top of the list for donations on Giving Day. That kind of response and loyalty from alumni reassures me that my hard work and effort to give them the best experience we could were appreciated and valued."

Cheryl Morris

"I value the interactions I've had with all the faculty, staff and students throughout my years at Salisbury University. I've gained many lasting friendships over 30 years."

Pam Penuel

"I lived by this quote for my entire 30 years working in the Registrar's Office at Salisbury University:

TEAMWORK

Coming together is a BEGINNING

Keeping together is PROGRESS

Working together is SUCCESS

– Henry Ford"

30-YEAR HONOREE REFLECTIONS

Bruce Pryor

"It was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to be the first brick mason for Salisbury University. It is truly an honor. Thanks to everyone."

Sandy Ramses

"There are no words to express how grateful I am for the Department of Biological Sciences being the best of the best! Biology faculty, staff and students are so wonderful to work for. I have been blessed to have them in my life. They are my family! Through the years, I have made countless friends with alumni and enjoyed watching them grow into their full potential. I've learned so much over the years and continue to each day I'm working at SU. Thank you, Biological Sciences, for being there for me in good times and in bad, and for being so wonderful to work for."

Sherman Wood

"I value the relationships I have established within my years here at SU. They say you love your job when you can't wait to get to work. Well, I guess I love my job! However, what drives me the most are the students. I love teaching, mentoring and providing any guidance needed for students to be successful. Believe it or not, I still have that same drive and desire as I did my first day on the job. Thanks to all involved in making this day a reality. Go Gulls!"

35-YEAR HONOREE REFLECTION

Dr. Kashi Khazeh

"With no doubt, a path to a bright future is EDUCATION. It is an investment in knowledge that pays an attractive dividend, one in which your dreams are achieved. In pursuit of it, educators must not accept mediocrity or a second-rate performance from their students. While educators have to be tough, they also need to be fair. Otherwise, this would be the worst thing that can happen to our students. The goal of a true education is unique: once you have it, no one can take it away from you. To that end, Salisbury University – through its endowed schools and state-of-the-art facilities – helps students realize this goal. So, I encourage our students to not give up on their dream of being educated. It is worth the effort!"

Dr. Michael O'Loughlin

"Over the past 40 years, I have treasured most the collegial character and spirited dialogue of the University, as it has evolved from Salisbury State College to Salisbury University today. Fellow faculty, our students and administrators and staff have made this place an oasis of creative thought and inquiry, just as a university should be."

Paul Scovell

"There is much to value at SU. First and foremost, have been the many colleagues and friends who have been nurturing and supportive in so many ways over the years. SU also has given me the freedom to explore a wide range of interests and has provided the tools to be a creative and a more effective teacher."

Best wishes for many more rewarding years
with us.
