

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

AFRICAN AMERICANS IN THE ARTS

FEBRUARY 2024

Black History Month Kick-Off

February 1st at 7:30 pm, Holloway Hall, Jackson Family Auditorium

The Harriet Tubman Living History Performance

Living History Performance, 11 am - 12:30 pm

Flesh & Bones Workshop, 12:30 - 1:30 pm

February 3rd at the Black Box Theater, Fulton Hall

Admission is free, but tickets are required. Reserve tickets at: salisbury.edu/performingarts

Black History Month Trivia

February 7th at 7 pm, Guerrieri Student Union, Wicomico Room

Black History Month Keynote Address with Prof. Melanee Harvey

“Patterns of Permeance: African Methodist Episcopal Architecture and Visual Culture”

February 8th at 6:30 pm, Guerrieri Student Union, Wicomico Room

Soul Food Dinner ft. Bernard Sweetney

February 9th at 4:30-7:30 pm, Commons Building, Bistro Dining Room

Documentary Screening and Discussion: Summer of Soul - Directed by Questlove

February 15th at 6 pm, Guerrieri Student Union, Wicomico Room

Lecture with Prof. Sarah RudeWalker

“Revolutionary Poetics: The Rhetoric of the Black Arts Movement”

February 19th at 6:30 pm, Holloway Hall, Great Hall

3rd Annual Multicultural Gala - “Masquerade”

February 24th, 7 - 10 pm, Guerrieri Academic Commons, Assembly Hall

Poetry Reading: 6th Annual African American Read-in – Dr. Ernie Bond

February 28th at 6 pm, Curriculum Resource Center (CRC), Conway Hall

Panel: “Celebrating and Saving Black History in Schools and Communities”

February 29th at 4 pm, Guerrieri Student Union, Wicomico Room