Section I: Department Overview

Vision
Salisbury University students will be educated to connect learning and living, demonstrate personal and academic integrity, welcome diversity and inclusion, and bring honor to themselves and the University.

Mission
The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership advances the mission of Salisbury University and the division of Student Affairs by providing meaningful opportunities for involvement in campus and community life. These opportunities are designed to improve the quality of community life and to promote the development of responsible citizens and leaders.

Operational Goals:
The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership (CSIL) focuses on all aspects of student learning that extends beyond the classroom and includes:

Goal 1. The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership aims to create opportunities for student involvement and student development.

1. Facilitate leadership education for undergraduate, graduate and special population students to foster the development of marketable skills including but not limited to: written and verbal communication, critical thinking, and goal setting.
2. Create and implement a comprehensive orientation program to facilitate a smooth transition to campus life for all new students.
3. Educate students to recognize, challenge and overcome personal cultural biases.

Goal 2. The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership embraces innovation to enhance student involvement.

1. Utilize technology to promote department programs (social media, daily email, texting)
2. Adopt technology which enhances the student leadership experience and administrative productivity for event planning, event promotion, succession plan development.

Goal 3. The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership aims to foster safe and inclusive communities among students, staff and organizations.

1. Encourage collaboration among student groups.
2. Train students to build relationships with campus partners
3. Encourage students to explore leadership opportunities and experiences beyond their comfort zone.
4. Develop opportunities to support school spirit.

Goal 4. The Center for Student Involvement and Leadership aims to motivate students to increase their effectiveness within their roles.

1. Provide trainings, resources and support for student organization leaders.
2. Designate budget for educational programs and risk management support.
3. Establish online system for forms, data collection, co-curricular transcripts and attendance tracking.
4. Provide training, resources and support for organization advisors.

Scope of Practice – Services Provided
- Connecting Students to programs outside of the classroom
  - Clubs and organizations
  - Fraternities and Sororities
  - Student Government Association
  - Block funded organization management
- Student Wellness Program
  - Educating students about the dimensions of wellness
  - Offering opportunities for students to develop healthy habits for a lifetime
- Leadership Programs
  - Event planning
  - Nuts and bolts of student organization management
  - Policy and procedure education
  - "Leadershop" series
  - One-on-one meetings with CSIL staff
  - Adulting 101 sessions

Student Learning Outcomes
1. CSIL Graduate Assistants participated in an intentional multi-day training focused on cross training, personal growth & development, teambuilding, job responsibilities & expectations, and goal setting. Graduate Assistants were trained to fully understand the different aspects of the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership, to prevent them from staying siloed in their own role. GAs then became direct points of contact for student organziation leaders meeting at least once per semester to review Involved@SU rquirements; funding requests; event planning details.

2. Student leaders utilized Involved@SU platform to register their organizations and promote events and were trained to use the new online event permit process.

3. Student leaders were informed of department policies through one-on-one meetings with CSIL staff

4. Fraternity and Sorority Life community participated in the Salisbury University Chapter Assesment Program and presented their result to campus partners.

Section V: A Summary of Achievements Related to Student Affairs Strategic Plan

The following are examples of ways in which the Unit is assisting Student Affairs achieve its goals.

Goal 1: Student Affairs aims to foster safe, accessible and inclusive communities for undergraduate and graduate students.

- Student Activities/Involvement Fair held each semester as a recruitment tool for student orgs
- Approximately 135 organizations are available for student involvement
- Activities/Involvement Fairs are held at the start of each semester
- Welcome Week Activities kick off each new semester
- Sixteen new student organizations were recognized bringing the total to 135 for the year.
  - RSOs provide students opportunities to meet other students with similar interests and values; explore their passions; explore diversity; and connect with the University.

Goal 2: Student Affairs aims to educate students for campus, career, and life.

- "Leadershops" were provided to student leaders on the "nuts and bolts" of running a student organization
- CSIL retreat for block funded organizations and FSL leaders
- One-on-one meetings between the CSIL staff (pro and grads were assigned a caseload of student leaders)
- Student leaders are expected to follow the processes set out by CSIL in order to successfully execute events and programs.
- Soft skills are developed through participation in a student organization
- Students are supported as they pursue activities related to their academic and career goals by attending regional and national conferences; local competitions; master classes etc.

Goal 3: Student Affairs aims to embrace innovation.

- Expand the use of Involved@SU (involved portal) for student organization use, leadership development, and communication with students.
  - Club/FSL chapter registration/re-registration occurs only through the involved portal
  - All approved events are posted on the involved portal
  - Attendance tracking is being utilized for large scale events and programs
  - Date collection is evolving

Goal 4: Student Affairs aims to motivate student affairs professionals to increase effectiveness and efficiency.

- Student Wellness committee which previously included only health services and counseling grew to include valued input for additional campus partners: housing/res.life; disabilities services; center for student achievement; case manager; career services; conduct; GSU and the University dietician. As a result of this expanded committee, the wellness program
  - Is better able to promote campus wide wellness initiatives for all students
  - Offers opportunities for collaboration and expansion of resources which support campus partners while providing more programs for students.
