Financial Aid @ SU

Salisbury
UNIVERSITY

Do you have questions about paying for your college education? Good news: A Salisbury University degree is affordable! Consistently ranked a best value nationally, SU is committed to helping you reach your educational goals.

From eligibility criteria to information for families to a helpful timeline to guide you along the way, visit SU's website for an informative look at our financial aid process:

What Does It Cost?

- The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships has a Net Price Calculator, which can be used to help you get a more accurate picture of what you can expect to pay as an undergraduate, first-year student at SU.
- This helpful tool will also determine your eligibility for our academic merit-based Presidential Scholarship.

It All Starts With The FAFSA

- The Free Application for Federal Student Aid – FAFSA – is an application you need to fill out every year so that you can be considered for federal student aid, including federal grants, loans and the work-study program and institutional need-based aid.
- In addition, Maryland residents may qualify for state aid based on the information provided in the FAFSA. To learn more about Maryland State aid programs - <https://mhec.maryland.gov>
- For full consideration, high school students should apply for the FAFSA between October 1 and March 1 of your senior year. Learn more about the federal student aid program and apply: studentaid.ed.gov/sa/fafsa

SU Has Scholarships Too

- When you submit your official transcripts and test scores when applying to SU, you are automatically considered for merit-based scholarships.
- As soon as you are admitted, you are eligible for some SU scholarships – starting December 1, complete an application for scholarships that are tailored to majors, interests and backgrounds.
- Some have a financial need requirement, so you'll still need to fill out the FAFSA for consideration for those. SU offered more than a $1 million in scholarships to our students last year.
